

Building Community Through Art Youth Art Month 2018

Students, grades K through - 12, from across Massachusetts have been selected to have their artwork displayed at the State Transportation Building in Boston. This exhibit, sponsored by the Massachusetts Art Education Association (MAEA), is part of Youth Art Month (YAM), a national celebration held each year during March, that emphasizes the value of art education for all children and encourages support for quality art programs in schools.

Across Massachusetts there are numerous celebrations and exhibits happening in schools, in districts, and regionally. The Boston exhibit, Building Community Through Art is the only statewide YAM Exhibit in Massachusetts and features student work from over 90 communities.

The Exhibit will be on display and open to the public weekdays 9-5, February 5, 2018 - March 27, 2018.

It is closed weekends and Presidents' Day 2/19/18)

Admission is free. Parking is available in the building for a fee.

Students from _____ School (s), under the direction of art teacher(s) , _____ are representing _____ in this year's YAM Exhibit at the State Transportation Building.

The young artists with work on display are: _____

Please share any press releases so we can add them to our report to National YAM