ABOUT ART ALL-STATE 2019: TAPE ART EDITION

AAS 2019 is a one-day program for high school juniors who will work collaboratively to create installations using tape. Each group of students will have a artist-teacher to help facilitate the collaborative process and everyone will work with the world renowned artists of the Tape Art Crew.

Students are expected to attend the one full day. Once accepted, AAS will email a confirmation that we have received all required documents. A detailed schedule will be sent at that time.

Students must be nominated by an art teacher. Teachers will fill out the nomination form and assist students with the necessary steps to complete the application process.

Step One: Teachers complete nomination form

Step Two: Students complete the student application

Step Three: Submit payment

Step Four: Sign and return consent forms
